Prof. Fanciulli Celebrates His Crystal Wedding and Birthday.

Prof. Fanciulli celebrated the two mo important events in his existence Saturday night by a delightful musicale at his hospitable residence, 625 A street northeast. The day was significant for having been the forty-fourth anniversary of the professor's birth and the fifteenth anniver sary of his union to the charming Mrs Fanciulli. The invitations that were sent out for the occasion, however, did not indicate that it would be more than a Saturday evening musicale, but some of the pupils of Prof. Fanciulli became aware of the importance of the day, and during the evening presented, through Mr. Chas. H. Boynton, to Prof. Fanciull a handsome cut-glass decanter and a set of cut-glass glasses. Prof. Fanciulli made a feeling response, at the conclusion of which lests drank the health of the professor and guests drank the health of the professor and his wife. A charming musical program was rendered, which was as follows:

Trio, "Veni Redemptor," Fanciulli, Miss Margot Hanway, Mr. William McFarland, Mr. J. #### SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Wants a Separation.

V. Geyer, through Attorney W. Preston Williamson, Saturday petitioned for legal separation from her husband Wm. F. Geyer, charging him with committing adultery with one Nellie Morris at 701 Rhode Island avenue and 64 H street northeast, between the 26th of October, 1895, and May 26, 1897. She prays that she be allowed $150 a month alimony and $100 as counsel fees.

Mrs. Geyer also prays that her husband be enjoined from occupying any portion of her residence, 1347 L street, and that he be enjoined from selling or disposing of any of the property or business of his livery stable at 927 D street. She states that they were married in Maryland, near Harper's Ferry, W. #### PLEA FOR WOMAN'S INFLUENCE. Dr. Pitzer's Speech at the Charlotte, N. C., Assembly.

The presbytery of West Lexington, Ky., overturned the ruling of the general aswomen speaking to mixed audiences, and prohibited notices of such meetings from being given from Presbyterian pulpits.

Dr. Pitzer of Washington, D. C., led in the opposition to such unscriptural despotism. He said the Bible nowhere authorizes the ordination of a woman to the ministry of the Word or the ruling eldership in the church; therefore, any such ordination is improper, but outside from this limitation he considered there was a wide field for woman's work in the furtherance of the gospel. She could do, and did do, many things in perfect accord with the sacred scriptures in the extension of the church. scriptures in the extension of the church. He gave an incident of a woman speaking in his church—a returned missionary from China, a lovely Christian woman. She was invited to speak in the church. He laid the matter before his session—judicious, plous men, and they saw no objection to her speaking. She made the talk. There was no impropriety in it, "and I do trust," said the speaker, "that this assembly, having appointed women to go to foreign lands as missionaries, will not debar them, on their return. from being allowed to tell as missionaries, will not debar them, on their return, from being allowed to tell what they have seen and done. There is nothing in the word which allows a woman to be a minister or ruler. I do not see anything improper in a Christian woman saying what she has done. If a woman is strictly to be inhibited from speaking in the church then she must not sing ing in the church, then she must not sing or teach in the Sabbath school. We ought to be very careful not to do anything that is not in the word of God.

"In defense of myself in this matter, I will say that because I live in Washington does not make me untrue to the principles.

will say that because I live in Washington does not make me untrue to the principles of the church. I am not the man to lower the flag of the southern church before the enemy, no matter how great. I say it is not gracious and not pleasant for any one to say that because I live in Washington I am disloyal to my church. It is not pleasant nor kind. I say nothing more on this subject." this subject."

Instantly Dr. Smoot was on the floor. He apologized to Dr. Pitzer and to the assembly if he had said aught that was un-Dr. Pitzer accepted the apology as graciously as it was offered, and continued then to a discussion of the overture. He was not in favor of any course not laid down in God's word. That, he said, was his only guide, and by that should all things he measured.

be measured.

After an animated debate, the assembly refused to adopt the overture to "silence the women, by a vote of 71 to 62.

THE CLAIM NOT JUST. Answer of Ex-Senator Brice to Mrs. Paxton's Equity Bill.

Answering the suit recently filed against him by Mrs. W. Paxton, to recover $428.50, on account of needlework alleged to have been done by her on his wife's order, ex-Senator Calvin S. Brice of Ohio denies the justness of Mrs. Paxton's claim. He says that his wife tendered her $288.62, which tender was refused, although he claims that it was the highest of three estimates given Mrs. Brice by parties skilled in such matters. He declares that Mrs. Paxton's claim is excessive and excrbitant, and also complains that she failed to complete the work in the time agreed upon, and that Mrs. Brice was thereby compelled to se-cure the linen elsewhere.

JEWELER MISSING.

William Friederichs, Well-Knows Business Man, Mysteriously Absent. William Friederichs, the well-known jew eler, who was in business on 7th street, opposite the patent office, for a number of years, but who has been recently located at No. 1226 G street, disappeared from his home a week ago, and the police have been unable to find him.

The missing man had been drinking during recent months, and on one occasion his wife had him sent to a hospital for treatment. This resulted in only temporary relief, and since then, it is claimed, he has shown evidences of an unbalanced mind. his relatives made arrangements to have him sent to the insane asylum for treat-ment, and it is for this purpose that he is now wanted.
